DESERT FREE

Care for dehydrated skin — cactus, peptides and a simple layered routine

BEAUTYBLVD, owner of Korean skincare brand DESERT FREE: one sunscreen and three Cactide serums

About the company

BEAUTYBLVD was founded on 1 November 2020. The company develops DESERT FREE, launched on 8 May 2024, around care for dry and dehydrated skin.

The Cactide range comprises Barrier Sun Cream, Double Repair Serum, Aquagel First Serum and Glow C Serum. The company profile names Kolmar Korea Co., Ltd. and Ancors Co., Ltd. as manufacturing partners; they are not presented as BEAUTYBLVD-owned factories.

Product range

Cactide Barrier Sun Cream

50 ml sunscreen, SPF 50+ PA++++. The official materials make no CPNP or MoCRA claim for this product.

Cactide Double Repair Serum

50 ml serum with cactus, ectoin, peptide-12 and sugarcane-derived squalane, per BEAUTYBLVD.

Cactide Aquagel First Serum

130 ml jelly-texture first serum-toner with cactus and collagen peptides, per the company.

Cactide Glow C Serum

50 ml serum with vitamin C, Vita-Peptide and 2% niacinamide, per the company; the conflicting launch month is omitted.

Technology

Cactide

The name combines cactus + peptide; it is the brand ingredient concept, not a separate certification.

Simple layered routine

DESERT FREE structures the range around sunscreen, a first step and targeted serums.
